Corporate Financial Policy

1. Purpose

These financial rules are established by Trump Rebate Banking System to ensure transparency, accountability, and proper fund management for all patriots participating in our TRB programs. The policy outlines the procedures for withdrawals, transfers, and the mandatory processing fee requirement.

2. Fund Transfer Eligibility

Before any transfer or withdrawal of funds can be processed, the individual account must:

- Be fully verified and compliant with all KYC (Know Your Customer and AML Anti-Money Laundering) requirements.
- Have cleared all applicable service or administrative charges associated with the TRB account.
- Be in good financial standing, without any pending disputes or compliance issues.

3. Mandatory Processing Fee

To facilitate the secure transfer of clients funds, a mandatory processing fee is required.

This fee covers:

- Bank and intermediary transfer charges
- Account verification and transaction authorization costs
- Administrative and compliance-related expenses

3.1 Fee Structure

- The processing fee amount or percentage will be communicated to each client prior to the release of funds.
- This fee must be paid in full before any disbursement or fund transfer is initiated.
- Failure to settle the processing fee will result in temporary withholding of the payout until payment is confirmed.

4. Payment and Confirmation

- All fees must be remitted through approved company payment channels only.
- Once payment is received, client will receive an official confirmation receipt.

• Transfers are typically processed within 3–5 business days following payment verification.

5. Transparency and Accountability

• The company does not deduct the mandatory fee automatically from the client TRB account.

• Client are encouraged to keep all payment receipts and correspondence for record-keeping purposes.

• All transactions are subject to audit and verification under applicable financial regulations.

6. Support and Dispute Resolution

For any questions or concerns regarding fees or fund transfers, client may contact the Finance Relations Department. Any disputes will be addressed in accordance with the company's official dispute resolution process.

7. Acknowledgment

By participating in the TRB program, each client acknowledges and agrees to abide by these financial rules and to pay any mandatory processing fees required for the release or transfer of funds.
